

Mary McNees

Mary's expertise includes comprehensive administrative, operational, scheduling, and logistical support for multiple organizations over two decades. She ensures that intricate and confidential details of hundreds of coaching sessions and events are properly scheduled each month, manages all back-office operations for both Thrive Professionals and LEADZus, and allows our talented Coaches to stay focused on what they do best.

Mary has exemplary program management, writing, editing, and finance skills, blended with a kindness and compassion that brightens any room. She has a vast resource library and a trusted network to guarantee that all events meet any organizations and leader's objectives. Her warm personality ensures that everyone that she interacts with feels appreciated, comfortable, and engaged.

Mary has the experience and maturity to anticipate needs, to create a blended-learning approach, and to manage multiple programs simultaneously. When engagements require additional resources, she deploys and leads an expanded team of trained administrative and program management professionals.
